Watch this video clip about a group of musicians who play instruments made from rubbish. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zndhyrd Can you make an instrument from junk in your home? Give your instrument a name and perform a concert for your family.	Make a xylophone! Collect some bottles. Fill each one with water but make sure you put a different amount of water in each bottle. Organise your bottles into a row, starting with the one with the least amount of water and ending with the one that has the most water. Gently hit the side of each bottle with a wooden spoon. What do you notice about the sound? Can you compose a melody on your bottle xylophone?	Sing! Visit https://www.outoftheark.co.uk/ootam-at-home-weekly/ and choose one of the fantastic songs to learn.
Explore BBC Ten Pieces https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/ten-pieces/ten-pieces-at-home/zjy3382 then create some amazing art-work inspired by the music you have listened to.	Listen to the story of "Peter and the Wolf" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MfM7Y9Pcdzw Which instruments can you spot in the orchestra? Can you re-tell the story to someone in your family?	Climb on board for a treasure-hunting adventure and enjoy singing some lovely songs in this exciting story! https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/music-ks1-sun-sea-song-index/zr4x2sg
Listen to this piece of music about the sea. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MdQyN7MY5N8 Use some household objects to compose a "Sea Soundscape". You could use tinfoil, bubble wrap, wooden spoons, pasta shaker, metal spoons etc.	Use newspaper and scrap paper to create some sounds. What is the loudest sound you make with just paper? What is the quietest sound? Can you make a sound that goes from quiet to loud? Or loud to quiet? Make a sound like the waves at the beach. Make a sound like the wind in the trees. Make a sound like raindrops. Which other sounds can you make?	Listen to Michael Rosen telling his story "We're Going on a Bear Hunt" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ogy16ykDwds Can you join in with the sounds of the swishy swashy grass, deep river, oozy mud, dark forest and snowstorm? Use household objects to create the sounds for the story. You could use crunched up paper, cardboard tubes, wooden spoons, pots and pans, tinfoil etc.
