

82%

of sessions, compared to our pre COVID-19 levels, are taking place, exceeding the national average.

76%

of our weekly sessions are face to face compared to 63% nationally.

6871

students are receiving weekly music tuition from O.M.S. staff in all settings.

Small Group Instrumental Lessons

are taking place in schools.

946

pupils receive face to face sessions.

65

students are receiving lessons in school via video stream.

Curriculum Class Music

is almost back at pre COVID-19 levels, teaching

3413

students which equates to

97.5%

pre lockdown.

Music Service

'Bounce Back'

Oldham Music Service have been working in partnership with schools to ensure a speedy and successful return to instrumental and curriculum music tuition in Oldham schools and are exceeding the current national average.

A thorough risk assessment process has been undertaken with each individual school and with planning, flexibility and resourcefulness our return can only be described as impressive.

Whole Class Instrumental Tuition

is at

86%

of pre COVID-19 levels reaching 2213

students face to face and a further

211

remotely via our digital platforms.

Musical Beginnings

, our Music Centre groups for babies and toddlers, receive a weekly lesson and video by their teachers via YUMU and our social media platforms so they can still enjoy music.

Music Centre Students are accessing digital resources uploaded by O.M.S. staff to YUMU so they can prepare and be ready for resumption of face to face rehearsals at the Lyceum.