Primary Music Network

The Primary Music Network is for all teachers and TAs (not just Music co-ordinators). Each session covers a stand-alone unit of work which we will explore during the session with the aim that you will be able to take the resources and ideas away to use with your class. Integrate composing, performing, listening and appraising into your music lessons and develop your confidence to deliver a high-quality and enriching music education which:

- enhances class topics
- develops children's confidence
- improves collaborative skills, literacy and communication

Whether you are an experienced music co-ordinator with a degree in music or an NQT with no musical experience whatsoever, the Primary Music Network is your FREE opportunity to develop your knowledge, skills and expertise.

Getting Creative with the "Great Composers" (KS1-KS2)

Monday 16th September 4pm-5.30pm

Book: <https://www.trybooking.co.uk/LCJ>

It doesn't have to be dry and boring! Explore how you can really engage your pupils with the works of the Great Composers. Introduce them to inspiring music and empower them to create their own masterpieces.

Moving on with Charanga

Monday 11th November 4pm-5.30pm

Book: https://www.gmmusiconline.co.uk/training_events/1748

Many schools use "Charanga" - the award-winning, modern-day resource for primary music. Ideal for non-specialist music teachers, it is a complete scheme to teach the national curriculum for music. Charanga comes complete with a growing library of songs, topics, instrument courses and creative apps. Oldham Music Service offers a limited number of FREE log-ins for Oldham schools who contribute via the DMG. This session offers the opportunity to explore Charanga in more depth and will be led by Lydia Dalby from Charanga Music.

Dippy the Dinosaur (EYFS, KS1, KS2)

Progressive Approaches to Musical Notation

Monday 18th May 4pm-5.30pm

Book: <https://www.trybooking.co.uk/LCN>

Possibly the most daunting aspect of teaching the Music National Curriculum if you are not a musician: “Use and understand staff and other musical notations”.

This session will introduce a simple, progressive approach to introducing staff notation and share plenty of ideas for other notations.

Tune-in to Talking Network

Tune-in to Talking is a specialised programme which aims to develop young children's speech, language, communication and social skills through the use of music. It aims to:

- accelerate the progress of disadvantaged children in order to close the achievement gap
- train EY practitioners and develop their knowledge and skills with regard to children's Speech, Language and Communication development
- work with settings to improve their engagement with parents
- develop EY practitioners' confidence and skills in using music within their settings to promote Speech, Language and Communication development and in general use of music

At the heart of the Tune-in to Talking programme, and a key factor in its proven success, is the ORIM framework (Opportunity, Recognition, Interaction, Modelling). This is explored in detail during the training sessions and complements the existing ORIM work that is being done across Oldham.

THE TRAINING SESSIONS ARE ONLY FOR SCHOOLS/SETTINGS WHO BUY-IN THE TUNE-IN TO TALKING PROGRAMME.

If you are interested in having Tune-in to Talking in your setting, email angela.preen@oldham.gov.uk

Monday 9th September 4pm-5.30pm

Monday 18th November 4pm-5.30pm

Monday 20th April 4pm-5.30pm

The Princess & the Pea

Take your Reception/Year 1 children on a wonderful, musical journey and explore this well-loved fairy-tale through composing, listening and singing!

Sue Nicholls, a specialist music educator in EYFS, has written a 6 song musical project based on the traditional tale of The Princess and the Pea. The project begins with a CPD session (compulsory), delivered by staff from Oldham Music Service, for the teachers of all the classes involved. This training will introduce the songs, narration and the accompanying resources for further classroom activities based around the story.

The songs will then be taught within school over the next few weeks in preparation for a performance. As this is a cross-curricular project, the hope is that schools will also use the cross-curricular ideas and resources to engage the pupils back in the classroom.

The project culminates in two interactive performances involving 100+ pupils in each workshop. The children (optional for staff!) will need to dress up as characters from the story for the performance.

This exciting, musical opportunity is only being offered to specific schools in 2019-20. Watch out for further details via First Class, email and social media!

Training: Monday 27th January 4pm-5.30pm

Performance: Thursday 26th March (morning or afternoon)

Introduction to Signalong

Many children start school with little or no English or a delay in their language skills. Signalong is designed for SEN children but is a really effective way to help all children to communicate. This practical training session will teach you the basics of signing and some really useful signs to use with your children.

This session is also available as a staff meeting so the whole staff can learn at the same time.

The Music Service offers “Hands & Voices” – a fortnightly session that uses music and songs to teach Signalong to Nursery/Reception children.

Friday 11th October 9.30am-12pm

FREE (DMG schools only) £50 non-DMG schools

Musical Futures

Developing ideas for KS2 & KS3 Classroom music with Just Play

Thursday 21st November 2019

Venue: The Lyceum OL1 1QG

Booking: <https://www.musicalfutures.org/training>

Just Play is a practical approach to building essential musical and instrumental skills in both primary and secondary stages of education from ages 8-14.

Originally designed for generalist primary school teachers who often felt that they weren't 'musical' themselves, Just Play has helped many teachers to take a step in to leading music activities through playing and participating alongside their students.

For music specialists in both primary and secondary schools, Just Play has become an accessible and musical way for them to 'skill up' all students on a range of instruments whilst also supporting large group music making supporting them to listen, copy and follow the music, maintain a pulse, play in time etc. designed to engage all teachers in making music with their classes whether they consider themselves to be musicians, music specialists, musical or not and will enable children to develop musical skills, build confidence and support their overall personal development.

Course includes full day's training PLUS the following resources:

- Just Play materials and resource \(worth £110\), which provides a full scheme of work, teacher notes, class materials and play alongs all ready for classroom use straight away.
- Everyone Can Play materials and resource \(worth £40\), which provides a full scheme of work, teacher notes, class materials and play alongs all ready for classroom use straight away.
- Exclusive Playalong Pack – 3 x additional playalongs \(worth up to £50*\) of your choice
